Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper require a large amount of space, and it is not possible to give advertising "notices" for any more than a few lines. A newspaper can afford to give away a few gifts of goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business, and it is not unusual for it to be stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, not given away in what part of the paper they appear.

The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it. —General Grant.

WHILE fire destroyed the type and presses in the Pantagraph office at Richmond, the list of delinquent subscribers was too tough for it. That was the only thing that didn't burn.

PRENT indications are that the December receipts of the Government will exceed the December expenditures, omitting from the calculation all the receipts from the Union Pacific Railroad transaction.

In the destruction of The Pantagraph office at Richmond the telegrams say that all the presses were burned, only the books being saved. This speaks eloquently of the hardness of the Printer's accounts.

The people who are criticizing the fact that the Associated Press reported that Mr. BRYAN had had his hair cut in Mexico forgot that its correspondents are directed to report only the most important features of his visit.

Is anybody has any doubt about the wisdom of the choice which the people of the United States made in the election of last year, let him compare the holiday conditions of 1867 with the holidays during the past four years.

PARTY lines disappear among business men when attacks are made upon National finances. This was exemplified in the recent meeting of the National Board of Trade in Washington. That organization is made up of men from all the old parties, and at its meeting resolutions were adopted favoring the maintenance of all our currency upon the gold basis.

THE LEDGER regrets to hear of the misfortunes that has befallen Editor THOMAS C. ADAMS of The Richmond Pantagraph. A few nights ago his entire office—presses, type and all belongings—was consumed by fire. The loss is set down at $2,500, with an insurance of only $1,000. It is sincerely hoped that The Pantagraph may rise from the ashes, brighter and better than before—if that is possible.

NEGOTIATIONS

For Reciprocity Between Venezuela and the United States.

One of the First of the Southern Republics to Consider the Question.

Regulations Under Act of Congress Prohibiting the Taking of Sealskins by Americans and Inhibiting the Importation of Sealskins Into This Country.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—It is said that one of the purposes of the present visit to Washington by the United States minister to Venezuela, Mr. Loomis, is to start negotiations for a reciprocity treaty between Venezuela and the United States. This is rather an unusual step, as Venezuela was one of the few South American countries which did not make a reciprocity treaty under the former system. At that time, however, Venezuela was so busy by writing her coffee practically excluded from the United States because Brazil and other coffee producing countries had the reduced duties under reciprocity treaties. This experience makes Venezuela one of the first of the southern republics to consider the question of reciprocity treaty under the Dingley law.

The secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the president, has issued regulations under the act of congress prohibiting Wednesday the taking of sealskins by American citizens except on the Pribilof islands, and inhibiting the importation into this country of pelage sealskins.

The regulation provides that sealskins, raw, dressed, dyed or otherwise manufactured shall be admitted to entry in the United States except there be attached to the invoice a certificate to the effect that the United States consul at the place of exportation said seal skins were not taken from seals killed within the waters mentioned in said act, specifying in that connection the seal skins, whether on land, at sea and also the person from whom said skins were purchased in their raw and dressed state, the date of such purchase and the lot number.

The post office department has ruled that an ex-serviceman drawing a pension under the dependent pension law may be reinstated in a position he formerly occupied in the service. The case arose in connection with the application of a serveman employed in the Philadelphia post office. In order to obtain a pension under the dependent act he must swear that he is without means of support and is unable to do manual labor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Controller of the Currency Jas. H. Eckels, whose resignation takes effect Friday, called upon the president Thursday afternoon to give his respects and say goodbye. Mr. Eckels left for Chicago Friday morning.

His successor, Mr. Chase R. Daves has qualified as controller and takes charge of the office in Milwaukee.

The secretary of state has directed the disbursing officer of the state department, Frank A. Branagan, to take charge of any money and supplies for Cuba which are to be delivered to him and forward the same to Consul General Lee at Havana.

Mr. Root, the dispatch agent of the state department at New York, has been sent to draw up documents contributed by the people of Monroe and that sum purchased and sent to Gen. Lee condensed milk.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The post office department has drawn up a circular, which will soon be issued, inviting proposals for furnishing adhesive stamps for the government for the four years beginning July 1 next.

The last adhesive stamp issued is the ordinary stamp, now a single and periodical stamp, postage due stamp and those for special delivery.

The number required for next year appears to be three billion. Under a special arrangement made nearly four years ago the work of furnishing stamps is now done by the bureau of engraving and printing, the bids received by the post office department in the fall of the year previous having been rejected.

The arrangement terminates July 1 when the new contract which will result from the advertisement is about to be issued will become effective.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Assistant Secretary Lee has just received a response from the superintendent of the Ward line steamers in New York in which he states that as far as he could announce that the line would convey supplies to Cuba for the relief of the suffering people free of cost. The prompt answer was:

"We will be pleased to accept supplies for Cuban sufferers free of cost. Please they will be consigned to Gen. Lee."

The Acandona, Mont., Standard telegraph, Wednesday night, said that the secretary of state has wired New York, for $200 already subscribed and paid in by Montana people for the benefit of the Cuban sufferers. More money is promised, and this is to be wired January 1. All of this money is being solicited through Consul General Lee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The arrangement effected between Mr. Sifton, in behalf of the Ward line, and the war department, complements that the relief expedition shall be executed jointly by the United States army and a force of the mounted police of Canada, which constitutes the main bulk of the Detachment. The United States force will go with the relief forces to Skagway where it will be joined by Canadian mounted police, about forty in number, and the two forces will proceed eastward to the point where the relief is to be distributed. The determination as to Skagway is, however, still open. The Canadian officials concede much latitude to the American authorities in the actual distribution, recognizing that the expedition is fitted out on this side, although a considerable part of its work will be done on the Canadian side of the border. No duties will be imposed on the stores carried by the relief expedition.

GREATER NEW YORK.

An Elaborate Programme for the Celebration of the Event Friday Night and Saturday Morning.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Friday will be the last day of the Old City of New York. The last meetings of many of the official boards of the city have been held. Others will meet for the last time Friday.

When the birth of another year has been announced the ringing of church bells, blowing of horns and tooting of whistles, the dawn of a greater, greater New York will be a fact. A celebration of the occasion has been arranged, which will begin Friday evening at 10 o'clock, and continue until the new city is an hour or more old.

The front of the city hall has been draped with the American colors. In the city hall park electric lights, which have been hung from the tops of the buildings about city hall search lights will play upon the park. The larger buildings will be illuminated. At 10 o'clock the city will be in full session to honor the arrival of the new year. It will be destined to knock out a salvo of a hundred guns. From the borough of Brooklyn, will come another salute of 100 guns to tell that the marriage of the two cities is now a fact.

Fireworks three and a half mortars in city hall park will add to the spectacle.

A procession of floats sent by business houses, theaters and societies, escorted by independent military orders, will pass through the city. The march will start from Union square at ten o'clock. By midnight the pageant will have reached the city hall. The crashing of the bands and the singing by young voices will be heard in the city hall. In front of the city hall will be accompanied by the cannon.

At midnight, when Trinity chimes will ring out and the clock of city hall indicate the hour of 12, the French will be the top of the city hall staff and while it is being run up 37 search lights, each 20,000 candle power will be upon it.

From Washington orders have come to the commanding on Governor's island to honor the birth of the new city. At sun rise on Saturday the battery on the island will fire a salute of 100 guns to the new city of New York.

"The hole between Hai-Phong (Tong) and Saigon is broken and under repair, and therefore it was impossible to get Ad. Baudouin to telegraph the news of the seizure to Saigon."

The cause of the delay was known only to a few officers on board the Ernest Simon, but inadvertently the secret was imparted to the Chinese who, it is said, were not being bound to secrecy, let the matter out. It is believed that the French hold the telephone at Hai-Kwai (Hochu) and the present commandant at Saigon is the French.
